Third Annual GigaNet Symposium
2 December 2008 - Hyderabad, India
Hyderabad International Conference Center (HICC)
Symposium Agenda - http://tinyurl.com/ynsuuf/

08:30-09:00 – Registration

9:00-9:30 – Opening Session

Welcoming Remarks by GigaNet Chair
    Nanette S. Levinson, American University, USA
Program Overview by Program Chair
    Meryem Marzouki, CNRS & Université Pierre et Marie Curie, France

9:30-11:15 - Session 1
Networked Global Governance and the Institutionalization of Internet Governance

Chair: Rolf H. Weber, University of Zürich, Switzerland

New Web Standards in the Making: Transnational Private Governance and Beyond
    François-Xavier Dudouet, CNRS & Université Paris-Dauphine, France
    Benjamin Nguyen, CNRS & Université Versailles Saint-Quentin, France
    Antoine Vion, Université de la Méditerranée, France
Co-Creating Processes in Global Governance: The Case of Internet Governance
    Nanette S. Levinson, American University, USA
More Substance than Process: Information Government's Lessons for Internet Governance
    Viktor Mayer-Schönberger, Harvard University, USA
Structuring Online and Offline Discursive Spaces of Internet Governance: Insights from a Network Approach to Map an Emerging Field
    Elena Pavan, University of Trento, Italy
    Mario Diani, University of Trento, Italy
ICANN's GAC and Global Governance of the Internet: The Role of the EU in Bringing Back 'Government' to Internet Governance
    Jamal Shahin, *Vrije Universiteit Brussel, Belgium & Ecole Polytechnique Fédérale de
    Lausanne, Switzerland*
    Matthias Finger, Ecole Polytechnique Fédérale de Lausanne, Switzerland

11:15-11:45 Coffee Break and Poster Session

11:45-13:30 - Session 2
Global Internet Governance: the Diverse Instruments of a Complex Mechanism

Chair: MyungKoo Kang, Seoul National University, The Republic of Korea

The Humanization of Internet Governance: A Roadmap Towards a Comprehensive Global (Human) Rights Architecture for the Internet
Wolfgang Benedek, University of Graz, Austria
Matthias C. Kettemann, University of Graz, Austria
Max Senges, Universitat Oberta de Catalunya, Spain & Stanford University, USA
Architecting Civil Liberties
Laura DeNardis, Yale Law School, USA
Internet Governance and the Jurisdiction of States
Joanna Kulesza, University of Lodz, Poland
Disrupting Global Governance: The Internet Whois Service, ICANN, and Privacy
Milton Mueller, Syracuse University, USA & Delft University of Technology, The Netherlands
Mawaki Chango, Syracuse University, USA
Internet Jurisdiction and Applicable Law in Latin-America
Cristos Velasco San Martin, Universidad Carlos III de Madrid, Spain

13:30-14:30 Lunch break

14:30-16:30 - Session 3
Stakeholders or Social Actors? Power Dynamics in Internet Governance

Chair: Stephen McDowell, Florida State University, USA

'Capacity Building' through Learning in the Global Internet Governance Fora
Slavka Antonova, Massey University, New Zealand
Engendering Internet Governance Research: The Example of Censorship
Heike Jensen, Humboldt University, Germany
Two Kinds of Violence: Internet Governance and Internet Mob in Mainland China
Zhang Zhuo, Wuhan University, China
Wang Handong, Wuhan University, China
From Athens to Hyderabad: Ontological Politics in the Internet Governance Forum
Tarek Cheniti, Oxford University, United Kingdom
Social Actors on a Hot Tin Roof? Between the Traditional and the Avant-garde in 'Internet Governance' Mobilization
Marianne I. Franklin, Goldsmiths, University of London, United Kingdom
Who Dominates the Market First? Competition Between IDN ccTLDs and IDN gTLDs
Y.J. Park, Delft University of Technology, The Netherlands

16:30-17:00 Coffee break and Poster Session

17:00-18:30 GigaNet Business Meeting

Separated Together: The International Telecommunication Union and Civil Society
Kristina Irion, Central European University, Hungary

Social Contract As Model For The Internet Community
Rolf H. Weber, University of Zürich, Switzerland

Building Regional and Ethno-Linguistic Communities in the Infosphere: dot Asia and dot Cat
Stephen D. McDowell, Florida State University, USA
Philip E. Steinberg, Florida State University, USA

Is Self-Determination still Important? The Study on Laws of Personal Data and Agreements of ICT Companies in South Korea and Japan
Min-Seong Park, Seoul National University, The Republic of Korea
Myung-Koo Kang, Seoul National University, The Republic of Korea

Modifying the Data Stream: Deep Packet Inspection and Internet Censorship
Ben Wagner, University of Granada, Spain & University of Munich, Germany

VoIP and the Net Neutrality Debate in Europe
Durga V. Sivasubramanian, University of Strathclyde, United Kingdom

Toward a Humanistic Conception of Cyberspace. A Twofold Challenge for Netizens Mobilizing for a Democratic Internet Governance.
Elena Pavan, University of Trento, Italy
Max Senges, Universitat Oberta de Catalunya, Spain & Stanford University, USA
Konstantinos Komaitis, University of Strathclyde, United Kingdom

Realizing the Global Promise of the Internet: The Future of Internet Governance
Constance Ledoux Book, Elon University, USA
Janna Quitney Anderson, Elon University, USA

An Assessment of the UN Internet Governance Forum
Olga Cavalli, Universidad de Buenos Aires, Argentina

The European Union Approach to Creative Content Online and its Relevance for IG: Issues, Framework, and Stakeholders Debate
Luciano Morganti, Vrije Universiteit Brussel, Belgium
Leo Van Audenhove, Vrije Universiteit Brussel, Belgium
John Vanhoucke, Belgacom Telindus, Belgium

2008 GigaNet Symposium Program Committee

Ana Abreu, Universidade Estadual de Campinas & Universidade Federal de São Carlos, Brazil
Slavka Antonova, Massey University, New Zealand
Meryem Marzouki, CNRS & Université Pierre et Marie Curie, France (Chair)
John Mathiason, Syracuse University, USA
Milton Mueller, Syracuse University, USA & Delft University of Technology, The Netherlands
Max Senges, Universitat Oberta de Catalunya, Spain & Stanford University, USA
Rolf H. Weber, University of Zürich, Switzerland

2008 GigaNet Symposium Sponsors

The University Pierre et Marie Curie (UPMC), France
The Computer Sciences Laboratory of Paris 6 (LIP6), France
The Syracuse University Internet Governance Project (IGP), USA
The United Nations Internet Governance Forum (IGF)

GigaNet Symposium Registration Form and Practical Information

Attendance at the Symposium is free and open to all interested parties, but registration is required. The Symposium registration form, together with other practical information, are available at the Symposium website (http://tinyurl.com/ynsuuf/). Registration form must be filled in and sent back to: Meryem.Marzouki@lip6.fr, preferably before 15 November 2008.

VERY IMPORTANT NOTICE: The Symposium will be held at the UN Internet Governance Forum (IGF) Venue. For security reasons, only registered participants to the IGF will be allowed into the conference venue (this registration is also free of charge). IN ADDITION TO REGISTERING TO THE GIGANET SYMPOSIUM, YOU NEED TO ALSO REGISTER TO THE IGF AT: http://www.intgovforum.org.